Icebreaker meeting on Thursday 22 September

Icebreaker meeting will be held in premises of the Croatian Biospeleological Society, Lomnička 3. The premises are on the ground floor facing south in the 8 store building on the address Lomnička 3. The premises are little difficult to find, but just make circle by foot around building and you will find it. Parking fee in the parking lots of premises is 1,5 kn / h from 7 AM to 8 PM. From 8 PM until 7 AM the parking is free for unlimited time. In case of any problems contact Martina Pavlek, Marko Lukić or phone number of the premises (+385 1) 7779820.

Social event on Friday 23 September

After event in the National and University Library we will move in just nearby bar called “Route 66” or “Spunk“. Both are just nearby the Library and we will decide on site, depending on the weather conditions.

Symposium excursion

Saturday, 24 September

Please confirm your participation in the excursion at the registration desk.

Excursion fee is 100 kn (15 EUR) and should be paid at the registration desk in cash. Fee covers dinner, drinks and overnight in the apartment Bjelolasica. No insurance is covered by excursion fee and registered participants agree that they will attend the Symposium excursion on their own responsibility.

Private cars of participants will be used for the transportation during the excursion.

Cars will depart from the parking lot in front of the Building 3 exactly at 1:30 PM. This tight schedule after the last presentation of the Symposium is important to manage all the schedule of excursion. Participants are encouraged to check out from their accommodation in the morning before the Symposium program starts, and to be ready to leave for excursion after the last session of the Symposium. Saturday lunch will be organized as lunch boxes and available on the parking lot before departure.

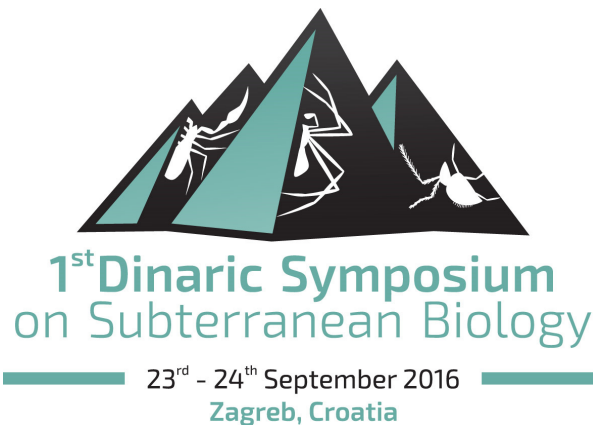

Hiking boots or rubber boots, headlamp / caving helmet with light are required. Be prepared for rainy and chilly weather.

Apartments Bjelolasica, Jasenak, Vrelo

After the excursion, dinner will be organized in Apartments Bjelolasica around 9 PM. We will reach the apartments in car convoy. This rural household has 5 apartments that can accommodate 20 - 30 people. Depending on the overall number of participants that will join the excursion, this should be just enough. However camping in your own tents is available on this household, so those participants that are interested in camping are encouraged to bring their camping gear (temperature during night is 10 °C). The Symposium program ends on Sunday morning, so participants are free to organize their time on Sunday and their trip home. Simple free self-service breakfast and coffee and tea will be available for purchase on Sunday morning.
